

THE OLD NORTH STATE.

WEAVER PUTS IN AN APPEARANCE.

He will speak at Fayetteville, where it is reported he will receive a repetition of his Georgia treatment.

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 26.—Special.—General J. B. Weaver, the Third party candidate for President of the United States, arrived in the city Sunday morning at 2 o'clock, accompanied by Mrs. Weaver and Mrs. Lease. The party took rooms at the Yarbrough, and during the day J. C. L. Harris and Dr. Ellis, prominent Republicans; Mr. J. A. Ramsey, editor of the Progressive Farmer; Mr. S. W. Barnes, secretary of the Alliance; Messrs. W. J. Peete, H. W. Ayer, J. W. Denmark and others called on Mr. Weaver.

Weaver's appointment to speak in Raleigh is not until Thursday, the 29th instant. It is understood that the several days ahead of time because of his having found it necessary to abandon the campaign in Georgia. Weaver consulted with the Third party leaders Sunday for the purpose of arranging appointments to speak in this city and other points before his date to speak in Raleigh. It is said that he will speak at Greensboro, Goldsboro or Wilson or perhaps at all three places, before speaking in Raleigh Thursday.

The party left this afternoon for Fayetteville, and Weaver and Mrs. Lease will speak there tomorrow. It is expected that they will receive a similar reception there to that accorded them in Georgia, as Fayetteville is one of the most uncompromising Democratic strongholds in the State.

Chief Justice A. S. Merrimon's condition is reported as much better this evening, and hopes are entertained for his recovery.

Good Effect of Vance's Letter.

Asheville, N. C., Sept. 26.—Special.—The letter of Senator Z. B. Vance to the voters of North Carolina was printed in all the State papers yesterday. The opinion of the politicians here is that the letter will result in much good, and that it is almost a death blow to the Third party. It is well known that the Senator possesses the confidence of the farmers of the State more than any living man, and it is not too much to hope and expect that those who have been deluded by the Third party demagogues will give ear to this deliverance and take heed of the warning against division at such a juncture. It is believed that a prominent politician of this place says the letter would cost the Third party at least five thousand votes in North Carolina.

The Richmond and Danville railroad is repairing its roadbed between Salisbury and Asheville and Spartanburg and Asheville, in anticipation of bad weather in the winter, during which the road is liable to be closed. The work is being done by the Murphy branch west of Waynesville, and the results on this route are receiving much needed attention.

The West Asheville Improvement Company is hard at work with a large force of hands on the massive dam which is in place across Hominy creek. This dam will be 30 feet high and 280 in length, and 2,000 barrels of cement will be used in its construction. There will be generated the power that is to light the city of Asheville by night through the medium of electricity. The dynamo which was recently broken while being unloaded is being repaired as rapidly as possible and will be ready for use in a few days.

The Asheville street railway is making every effort to be prepared to begin replacing its track on Patton avenue this week. This work will be done under the immediate direction and supervision of City Engineer Lee. Under Judge Brynner's order the railway company must hereafter push its paving between the rails of its track and for eighteen inches outside the rails as rapidly as the city does its share of the work, provided the latter furnishes the material and has in readiness along the line at the time. The company is to pay the city the actual cost of material delivered along its track and to bear all the expense of replacing the track from the postoffice to Court Square. The penalty for failure on the part of the company to comply with the provisions of the order is $100 a day, which is being levied on the company for its failure to provide material after such failure and is remitted to its legal rights in regard to that previously furnished. The city attorneys profess to be satisfied with the result of the litigation, but it looks very much as if the company had won a decisive victory. This matter of paving seems to be receiving the earnest attention of the city authorities, and they seem anxious to do as much of it as possible before winter.

One of the largest crowds ever seen in Asheville was here Saturday to attend a circus, and business was very brisk on that day. There was a large meeting of Democrats on Friday on Haw river to hear an address by General R. B. Vance, candidate for the legislature. There was much enthusiasm and a goodly number of names were added to the roll of the Democratic club of that place. The candidates for elector of this district spoke in Yancey and McDowell last week and had large crowds in both counties. Mr. Craig, the Democratic candidate, is outstripping his opponents at every point, and is winning praise, and what is more necessary—votes wherever he speaks. Hon. Elias Carr was in Wayne county last week, and with F. I. Osborne, candidate for attorney-general, also spoke in Cherokee. They held their annual convention for Governor is gaining quite a reputation as an expounder of the gospel of tariff reform, and his simple and forceful exposure of this monstrosity is winning votes for the Democracy in Western Carolina.

Mr. G. F. Scott, one of the city advisers under the improvement act, sent in his resignation yesterday afternoon.

A Negro Convention. Oxford, N. C., Sept. 24.—Special.—The Republican Convention convened in Oxford today and nominated the following ticket: Scott Norwood for register of deeds and two negroes for the Legislature. There were about seventy-five negroes and ten white Republicans in the convention. They held the convention with closed doors. They ignored entirely the Third party element, notwithstanding their earnest entreaties to share the honors of a nomination in this great convention. No nomination was made by the convention for either sheriff or treasurer. The Third party was in hopes their candidates would be introduced by the convention. The work accomplished is regarded as being of no consequence, and Greenville will keep her old reliable Democrats for the next two years.

Remorse at Raleigh. Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 23.—Special.—Hon. Matt. Ramsey, who here this morning and went to Oregon tomorrow, nine miles north of here, and there he addressed a large crowd of Third party people. He came back and was waited on by the Cleveland and Stevenson Club, and accepted a cordial invitation to speak to them tonight at the Opera-House, which was crowded. He was introduced by Captain A. E. Walters, president of the club, and was greeted with hearty cheers. He discussed negro rule, the Force bill, and the necessity of Democratic success.

Williams and Settle Combining Together. Oxford, N. C., Sept. 26.—Special.—Hon. A. F. Williams, Democratic candidate for Congress in this, the Fifth district, and Thomas Settle, Republican candidate, began their joint canvass here today. Lindsay, the Third party candidate, failed to appear. Settle made Lindsay's speech for him, however. By this he hopes to keep the Third party united, and thus carry the district. Williams' election is pretty certain, however, as the Third parties are fast returning to the Democracy.

A Youthful Negro Burglar. Reidsville, N. C., Sept. 26.—Special.—Thursday afternoon a colored boy entered the residence of Mrs. Annie Montgomery and went in her room and took from a desk $30. He then went out town and bought a gun and cartridges and boarded the southbound train that night, and has not been heard from since. He was about twelve years old.

Scottsville Notes.—Mr. William Branch, C. Wood, special constable, called on the mayor of our town Saturday in order to renew a warrant issued at Montreal, Nelson county, for the arrest of one Bridges, charged with receiving money under false pretences. Indeed, the officers had arrested Bridges and had him in custody before the mayor was called upon for a renewal of the warrant. Bridges asserts his innocence.

Mr. William Branch, aged eighty-seven years, died Friday and was buried Saturday in the Presbyterian cemetery. Mr. Branch has been a prominent citizen of Albemarle county all his life. At one time he figured in politics, and served one or more terms in the Virginia Legislature. He leaves a valuable estate to relatives. He died a bachelor.

Organizing for Out-Door Games. Ashland, Sept. 26.—(Special.)—At rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association of Ashland a few evenings ago the Ashland athletic organization was organized by a number of Ashland's young men. They propose to enter into all kinds of out-door games and sports. Mr. Horace O. Buchanan was elected president, Mr. Leslie Ellis vice-president and Mr. Leonidas Rosser secretary and treasurer.

An executive committee composed of Mr. Schooner Fox, chairman, and Messrs. Robert V. Marx, Joseph Bowles, L. P. Whitehead and William Miller was elected, and by-laws with the following members: Mr. Leslie Ellis, chairman, and Messrs. Schooner Fox and Leonidas Rosser. Arrangements will be made at once to procure grounds where the games will be played. The street committee of Ashland have advertised for bids for laying brick pavements, and also for quarrying stone for curbing from the quarry near Taylorsville. The railroad company have given the town all the stone they may want for curbing and have arranged to transport it to Ashland at exceedingly low rates.

Thomas Goldson, colored, was convicted at the Hanover County court for house-breaking and sentenced to five years in the penitentiary. This being his second offense five years will be added to his term. A big barbecue and Democratic rally will be held at Gold Harbor, beginning at 11:30 A. M. on Tuesday, October 4th. A number of prominent speakers will be on hand.

On Wednesday evening, October 4th, at 8 o'clock a Cleveland and Stevenson Campaign Club will be organized in the town hall of Ashland. Every Democrat who wishes to become a member is invited to be on hand for the meeting.

The free school of Ashland has on its rolls 117 scholars. This is far in excess of any previous year, and speaks well for the management of this institution.

Another Lie to the Front.

Lexington, Sept. 24.—Special.—Mr. George Bolling Lee, son of a large landowner in the mountains of Virginia, recently told the highest honor at the hands of his fellow-students of Washington and Lee University in being elected president of the final ball, which takes place next June. Mr. Lee was unanimously elected last year, but resigned on account of the death of his father early in the session.

Our Art Supplement Next Sunday.

The Times will present to its subscribers next Sunday another great historical picture by Gustav Hellmuth, depicting the apparition entry into Stockholm in 1520 of Peder Sornvater and Master Knut. The scene represents these men dressed in rags and wearing the one a crown of straw and the other a nitro of birch bark, mounted on traveling horses and carried through Upsala to Stockholm in the Shrovetide procession, amidst the jeers and insults of the devoted subjects of Gustav Vasa, against whom they had raised a rebellion in Dalsland, Sweden.

The artist, Hellmuth, was born in Kungälv in 1831, and distinguished himself only as a student in the Stockholm Academy, receiving a medal for one of his first pictures. He was in 1886 an instructor in the Academy of Berlin, and now resides in Munich.

This picture will be followed on Sunday, October 10th, by a historical reproduction of one of D'Enail's great Franco-Prussian war scenes. All persons who wish to be certain of receiving these pictures and those which will follow them should place their names on the list of The Times subscribers.

NEW FAD IN MUSIC.

How the Taste Changes in Things Musical.

Society Ladies Enthusiastic Over the New Musical Craze.

Its Chief Exponent's Interesting Talk in Regard to Himself.

The fashion in music is all running toward the banjo this season. Thousands of girls and women in fashionable society, to say nothing of the men, have taken up the banjo as the popular modest instrument of the day. The "chum, thum" of fair fingers is heard on every hand.

Professor Henry C. Weitzel, one of the greatest musicians this century has produced, occupies the undisputed position of the best banjo player in the world. Visited at his home, 841 South Canton street, Baltimore, Md., the great exponent of the banjo was found full of enthusiasm for his beloved instrument. And in his hands the music is indeed beautiful—wonderful. The great Professor, as everybody knows, was most seriously sick for a time, but his thousands of admirers will be glad to learn that he has completely recovered his health.

PROFESSOR HENRY C. WEITZEL.

When approached in regard to his health, he spoke in raptures concerning his recovery, for he considers his restoration to health little short of a miracle, as he had well-nigh lost hope of ever being well again.

"I suffered severely," he said, "with indigestion, nervous prostration and palpitation of the heart. I had spells of weakness come over me so that my legs would give way and I would be forced to leave my work. In fact, I was in a bad fix, and my nerves were in a very serious condition."

"I now thank God that I got some of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy—the best medicine at last after trying with many doctors, who did me no good. I am using my second bottle, and it certainly beats all the medicine I ever saw. I tell you I feel like another man."

Professor Weitzel is well-known at this office, and the editor can therefore personally vouch for the absolute truth and correctness of every one of the above statements. None of Professor Weitzel's friends ever expected to see him well again, and his restoration to health is a great triumph for Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. It certainly does cure the sick, makes them strong and well. Besides, it has the great virtue of being a perfectly harmless remedy, as it is purely vegetable. Although sold by druggists for $1.00, it is not a patent medicine in the ordinary sense of the word, but is the discovery and prescription of the great specialist in nervous and chronic diseases, Dr. Greene, of 35 West Fourteenth street, New York, who gives consultation and advice free to the sick and suffering, either personally if you call at his office, or by letter if you write him about your case.

We advise sufferers from disease to use his wonderful discovery, which so remarkably restored Professor Weitzel to health and strength.

The third annual convention of the American Association of Railroad Clerks began Thursday in the Drexel Institute, George A. Round, of Boston, presided. The executive committee reported a membership of more than 1,000. In the evening the delegates were treated to a musical and organ recital by Mr. George W. Childs.
